Summary

Please provide a brief summary of all regulatory changes, including the rationale behind such changes. Alert the reader to all substantive matters or changes. If applicable, generally describe the existing regulation.

Under the provisions of Title XI of the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery and Enforcement Act (FIRREA), the Appraiser Qualifications Board (AQB), establishes the minimum education, experience and examination requirements for real property appraisers to obtain state certification. The AQB has revised the criteria for qualifying education, the period of time the examination is valid, the type of license a supervising appraiser must hold as well as the number of trainees a supervising appraiser may supervise, and qualifying continuing education effective January 1, 2008. The regulations are being amended to comply with the new federal requirements.
